

Celia Christmass is a highly regarded Kodaly specialist and choral conductor, and has presented at conferences all over Australia. In 1989 Celia received a Hungarian Government Scholarship and spent a year studying at the Kodaly Institute in Kecksermet. At the conclusion of this year she was awarded the Mrs. Zoltan Kodaly Scholarship and invited to continue her studies for a second year. In 1992 Celia completed her Masters Degree in Music Education at Holy Names College in California, USA. Celia has taught at both primary and secondary school level in both public and private domains and now teaches at Perth Modern School. She also lectures in music education at the University of Western Australia. In 2001 Celia was awarded an ASG National Excellence in Teaching Award.