

Matthew Perry

1/49 Imperial Ave Bondi NSW 2026

matthew@mppublications.com

Ph: (02) 91306516

Fax: (02) 91306517

www.mppublications.com

Biography

Matthew teaches music at Cranbrook school in Sydney where he specialises in early childhood music. His responsibilities include preschool, infants and primary teaching.

In addition to teaching music, Matthew works as a composer, conductor and pianist and was the musical director of “Christmas at the Opera House” from 1984 -1997.

His many compositions include:

The winning entry in the 1985 Australian Song Contest
The Finale which formed part of the opening ceremony for World Expo '88 in Brisbane
Music for the opening of the High Court Canberra

Songs and music for:

Life Education Centres International
Clean up Australia /Clean up the World
Clean Air 2000 NRMA
The Wiggles

Finales for Folkloric celebrations at the Sydney Opera House

Educational music resources and musicals for schools throughout Australia and overseas

In 2005 he was nominated for “best composition” in the Australian Classical Music Awards for his work “NOCTURNAL”.